

TUTOR CONTRACT

Name: _____ UMID: _____

Email: _____ Local Phone: _____

Kinesiology is a community of students, faculty, and administrators who commit to treating each other with respect, honesty, fairness, and trust. We hold all members of this community to high standards of scholarship, integrity, and to assume personal responsibility for decisions and actions as we strive to develop students who will become leaders in the field of Kinesiology. All forms of academic dishonesty or conduct that violates academic and ethical standards on the community will not be tolerated.

Your role as a tutor is to help students take ownership of their own learning and studying (understanding concepts, fostering independent learning, building self confidence, learning test prep and useful strategies.)

By signing this contract, you agree not to help the person you tutor cheat in any form. This includes but is not limited to:

- completing homework assignments for them
- telling them questions or answers to previous tests you have taken in a course
- giving them old essays to copy or plagiarize

Should you have any other questions about what constitutes as academic integrity or how cheating is defined please refer to the Academic Integrity Policy in the Kinesiology Bulletin. The Bulletin can be found online at www.kines.umich.edu/advising.

Should you violate this agreement you will be asked to resign as a tutor and you will be subject to disciplinary action pursuant with Kinesiology's Academic Integrity Policy.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I understand and agree to the terms set above.

Signature

Date

For Office Use Only:
Effective term: _____