EDUCATION

- PhD Epidemiology and Biostatistics, 2002
Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, OH
- Dissertation
Fellowship Social Science Research Council at the Ford Foundation, 2001–2002
- MA Master of Arts Program in the Social Sciences, 1998
University of Chicago, Chicago, IL
- BA Psychology, Summa Cum Laude, 1994
Baldwin Wallace College, Berea, OH

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

- September 2015 – Present Associate Professor, Health and Fitness, School of Kinesiology, University of Michigan
- July 2011–Present Research Assistant Professor, Survey Research Center
Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan
- March 2006–July 2011 Assistant Professor, Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics
University of South Carolina
- July 2002–February 2006 Assistant Professor, Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics
Case Western Reserve University

HONORS AND AWARDS

- 2014 Citation Award, Society of Behavioral Medicine
- 2013 Travel award for JHGCCO Workshop: Agent-based and systems dynamic models:
New tools for understanding obesity
- 2011 Delta Omega Faculty Member, Honorary Society in Public Health
- 2010 Keith Teaching Award Nominee, Arnold School of Public Health, University of South Carolina

2007–2010	Health Disparities Research Loan Repayment Fellow, National Institutes of Health
2004	Early Investigator Award, International Society of Behavioral Nutrition and Physical Activity
2004	Best Contribution Award, Case Western Reserve University School of Medicine
2004	Learning Fellow, The University Center for Innovation in Teaching and Education, Case Western Reserve University
2004	Case Faculty Representative for National Conference on Examining Student Education and Action on Health Disparities, Kansas City
2003–2004	National Public Health Leadership Scholar, Funded by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Part of four-member Ohio Team

RESEARCH SUPPORT

Pending

Co-investigator, Health, Wealth and Time Use Over the Life Course and Across Generations

NIH/NIA; 9/1/2016 – 8/31/2021
 $12,394,556 total costs; 1.2 calendar months
 Scored 3rd percentile; Awaiting council review.

Co-investigator, A Positive PATH (Promoting Activity and Trajectories of Health) for Children

NIH/NHLB; 7/1/2016–6/30/2021
 $2,667,929; 2 academic months
 Scored 13th percentile; Awaiting council review.

Co-investigator, Interrupting prolonged sitting with activity to improve cardiometabolic outcomes in children: the role of frequency, duration and intensity

NIH; 09/01/2016 – 8/31/2021
 $2,750,739; 0.9 academic months
 Awaiting peer review

Co-investigator, Effects of Brain-Engaging Coordinative Aerobic Physical Activity Intervention on BMI and Academic Achievement

NIH; 09/01/2016 – 8/31/2019
 $465,000; 0.45 academic months
 Awaiting peer review

Current Federally Funded Studies

Principal Investigator (multiple), Built environments on stroke risk and stroke disparities in a national sample

NIH/NINDS; 2/1/2016 – 1/31/2020
 $2,500,000 total costs; 3.5 calendar months

This study will examine the role of built and social environments on stroke risk and stroke disparities. The study will add built and social environmental data (e.g., food prices, supermarket availability, park land, crime, neighborhood deprivation) to the REGARDS cohort (Reasons for Geographic and Racial Disparities in Stroke).

Principal Investigator, Improving environmental measures in obesity research using innovative technology

NIH/NCI; 4/9/2015 – 3/31/2017
 $397,137 total costs; 2.4 calendar months

This study will utilize an innovative new technology developed by NASA called GigaPan to document neighborhood environments. GigaPan takes hundreds of photos using an everyday camera and automatically stitches the photos together to provide a single, navigable, very high resolution photo. This method of documenting environments will be compared to audits of environments completed in-person and via Google Earth. The neighborhood characteristics defined from each of these methods will be associated with the physical activity behavior of the participants in the parent study as measured by accelerometry.

Principal Investigator, Impact of public housing assistance on modifiable cancer risk factors in adults
NIH/NCI; 04/01/2014-03/31/2016
$155,313 total costs; 1.5 calendar months

Using data from the Panel Study of Income Dynamics, a large nationally representative survey, this study will test whether living in public housing improves several health behaviors (e.g., physical activity, obesity, alcohol use, cigarette use) that decrease one's chance of getting cancer. The study will also examine neighborhood and individual-level factors as potential mediating factors with the goal to inform health promotion programs and housing policies.

PI of subcontract, Physical Activity During the Transition from Elementary School to High School
NIH/NHLBI; 1/1/2014–1/31/2017; Pate, PI
$82,251 subcontract total costs; 0.6 calendar months

This study (TRACK-2) extends an existing observational cohort study (TRACK-1, N = 1000) to identify salient factors that explain the changes in physical activity that occur as children transition from elementary school through middle school and into high school. Major goals of the study are to inform future physical activity interventions and to expand the body of knowledge regarding the relationship between physical activity and selected health indicators, including body fatness, during childhood and adolescence.

PI of subcontract, Impact of Green Space Improvement on Physical Activity in a Low Income Community
NCI; 07/01/2012–06/30/2017; Dubowitz, PI
$230,201 subcontract total costs; 1.8 calendar months

This study will engage a large random sample (N = 1320) of households from 2 neighborhoods. We will collect individual-level data, greenspace utilization, and greenspace user data at baseline and 12-18 months post-renovations in order to: 1. Determine the impact of greenspace renovations on PA measured by accelerometry and self-report. 2: Examine greenspace utilization for PA before and after renovations through direct observation and user surveys in the intervention and control neighborhoods. 3: Examine mediation and moderation.

Co-investigator, Determining the Potential Benefit of Powered Prostheses
Department of Defense; 9/1/2015 – 8/31/2017
$499,194 total costs; 1.5 calendar months

The goal of this project is to determine how the addition of power to a prosthetic ankle system affects neuromuscular control, muscle fatigue, and overall activity level of people with transtibial amputations. Activity levels will be determined via accelerometry and integration into the community will be determined via GPS.

Co-investigator, Linking Geographic Data on Food Accessibility to the PSID

Clark R. Smith Family Foundation, 01/01/2016 – 12/31/2016
$200,000 total costs; 0.6 calendar months

This proposal will create a new data source linking the geographic location of families in the Panel Study of Income Dynamics (PSID) with the geographic location of supermarkets and convenience stores so that the distance families live from reliable sources of fresh and nutritious food can be calculated. The overall aim of this project is to contribute to our knowledge about the relations between food accessibility and children's and families' well-being in the U.S., and to provide a public good that can be used by researchers worldwide.

Currently Funded Pilot Studies

Principal Investigator, Using a Mobile Phone Application to Assess Time Use, Physical Activity and Obesity

UM Momentum Center; 11/01/2014 – 10/31/2016

$25,000 total costs; 0 calendar months (pilot study)

The goal of this pilot study is to test the feasibility and acceptability of a new method of collecting real-time time-use data among older adolescents/young adults—specifically, via a mobile phone application. We will track activities that occur throughout the day with concurrent accelerometer and GPS data collection. The data from this pilot study will be used to generate preliminary estimates of key relationships of interest (e.g., the association between time spent in activities that are sedentary, active, planned, unplanned) and to inform power calculations for a future larger-scale study.

Co-Investigator, Unlocking the potential of mobile big data for behavioral research

UM MCubed, 11/2015 – 4/2017

$60,000, 0 Calendar months (pilot study)

Data provided by mobile phones have the power to revolutionize our ability to understand and improve behavioral choices around, for example physical activity, travel behavior, social connections, etc. Capitalizing on this large quantity of data could be greatly enhanced by soliciting small amounts of user input in real-time around specific situations that are of interest. To do this, we need to develop reliable mechanisms to trigger context-specific real-time user input queries. We also need to develop algorithms that can maximize the trade-off of certainty of information versus user burden. In this project we will develop mechanisms to trigger user inquiries to enhance the interpretability of other data from the phone and use machine learning to identify ideal moments to request user input. The results of this study will help us and other researchers unlock the potential of behavioral "big data" from mobile phones.

Completed Federally Funded and Foundation Grants

Principal Investigator, Effects of the Built Environment, Crime & Food Prices on BMI, Activity & Eating

1R01CA132896-01A2 NIH/ National Cancer Institute; 12/04/2009–11/30/2014
$1,085,197; 2.0 calendar months

Principal Investigator, Objectively Measuring Physical Activity Space and Food Environments

58012 Robert Wood Johnson Foundation; 08/01/2006–01/31/2009
$51,361; 0.45 Academic, 0.15 Summer

Principal Investigator, Defining the Built Environment

R21 CA121151-01, NIH/National Cancer Institute; 09/15/2005–08/31/2008
$ 382,387; 2.25 Academic, 0.75 Summer

Principal Investigator, School Grounds as Community Parks: Modifying the Environment to Increase Physical Activity

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation; 07/2004–11/2005
$99,992; 3.0 calendar months

Principal Investigator, Environmental Influences on Physical Activity

American Cancer Society Institutional Research Grant; 01/2004–12/2004
$20,000 (direct); 20% in-kind

PI of subcontract, Impact of Physical Activity on Stroke and Cognitive Function in Older Adults

NIH/NINDS; 10/01/2008–07/31/2014
$21,526 subcontract total costs; 0.8 calendar months; Hooker, PI

PI of subcontract, Physical activity during the transition from elementary school to middle school

NIH/NHLBI; 04/15/2009–12/31/2013
$3,318,599; 1.8 calendar months; Pate, PI

Co-investigator, Youth, Education & Society (YES) project

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation; 11/15/2008–12/31/2014
$7,323,077; 6.0 calendar months; Johnston, PI

Co-Investigator, Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Research Center

CDC; 09/30/2009–09/29/2014
$4,965,699; 0.45 Academic, 0.15 Summer; Hooker, PI

Co-investigator, Developing Measures of the Built Nutrition Environment - Supplement.

$69,397; 0.45 Academic, 0.15 Summer; Lui, PI

Co-Investigator, Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Research Center

U48-DP-000051, CDC; 09/30/2004–09/29/2009
$4,281,088; 0.45 Academic, 0.15 Summer; Hooker, PI

Co-Investigator, Active Living by Design: Connecting Cleveland Communities: Design for a Healthy Neighborhood

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation; 11/2003–10/2007
$200,000 (direct); 5% (in-kind); Reichtell, Slavic Village Development Corporation, PI

Co-Investigator, Abstinence vs. Safe-Sex Education to Middle School Teens

NICHD (R01 HD413-64); 06/2002–05/31/06
$1,476,950; 10%; Borawski, PI

Pilot Studies Completed

Principal Investigator, Environments and Activity: GPS-Based Collection of Real-Time Perception and Behavioral Data to Support Modeling

University of Michigan - Mcubed program; 12/18/2012 – 4/1/2015
$60,000 total costs; 0 calendar months (pilot study)

Co-investigator, Outdoor Child Physical Activity and Neighborhood Environment—Preliminary Data for Trial of Impact of Safe Playspaces for Children on Child Physical Activity

USC - Research Consortium on Children and Families; 05/15/2007–11/15/2007
$20,956; 0.45 Academic (in-kind); Meriwether, PI

Evaluation Contracts Completed

Principal Investigator, Evaluation of STEPS to a Healthier US: Cleveland Proposal

Health and Human Services/Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; 11/04–10/05
$180,909; 25%; Cleveland Department of Public Health

Principal Investigator, Evaluation of the Invest in Children Lead Primary Prevention

Cuyahoga County Commissions and Local Foundations; 01/2005–06/2005
$5,512; 18%

Principal Investigator, Evaluation of Active for Life

Cleveland Department of Public Health; 01/2004–12/2004
$4,000 (direct); 3.5%

Co-Investigator, Evaluation of the Cuyahoga County Comprehensive Partnership for Tobacco Reduction

Master Settlement Agreement and local funding; 11/01/2003–10/31/2005
$99,000; 10%; Borawski, PI

Co-Investigator, Evaluation of Teen Pregnancy Prevention Programming in Cuyahoga County
Ohio Children and Family First Council; 7/1/2004-6/30/2005
$99,900; 10%; Borawski, PI

TEACHING ACTIVITIES

Full Courses

University of Michigan

School of Kinesiology

2016 Environmental and Policy Approaches to Increasing Physical Activity (HF 416, KIN 416). This course will describe the manner in which environments and policies influence physical activity behavior

University of South Carolina

Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics (EPID)

2010, 2008 Special Topics in Epidemiology: Social Epidemiology (EPID 894, EPID 794). Principle concepts, measurement and methodology in social epidemiology.

2010, 2007 Epidemiology of the Health Effects of Physical Activity (EPID 820). Measurement of physical activity and physical activity's effect on health.

2009 1st Semester Seminar in Epidemiology (EPID 745). Introduces students to a variety of epidemiological topic areas primarily through guest lectures.

2008 2nd Semester Seminar in Epidemiology (or Writing in Epidemiology) (EPID 745). Writing a journal article using data analyses completed in EPID 741.

Case Western Reserve University

Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics (EPBI)

2005, 2001 Community Interventions and Evaluations (EPBI 433). Design, conduct, and assess community-based health interventions and program evaluation.

2005 Pathophysiologic Consequences of Behavior (EPBI 412). Physiological mechanisms through which behavior affects bodily systems and the development/maintenance of these disease mechanisms. The use and limitations of common measures applied to disease conditions and behavior are reviewed.

2004, 2003 Epidemiology: Application of Theory and Methodology (EPBI 491). In-depth course in study design and analysis: Study design (case-control, cohort, cross-sectional studies), confounding, effect modification, bias, causality, measures of effect and association, reliability/validity.

Invited Lectures*University of Michigan*

School of Kinesiology, Department of Epidemiology (EPID), School of Natural Resources and Environment (NRE), and Gerald R. Ford School & The National Poverty Center.

- 2016 Physical Activity Assessment. Physical activity and nutrition. (KIN 513 / NUTR 631)
- 2016 Adolescent self-defined neighborhoods and activity spaces: Spatial overlap and relations to physical activity and obesity. Graduate seminar in Movement Science. (KIN 600)
- 2014 Social Determinants of Obesity. Social Epidemiology II: Social and Economic Determinants of Population Health (EPID 617).
- 2014 Collecting Environmental data via Mobile Phones. Ambient and Volunteered Environmental and Geographic Information (NRE 639.039).
- 2014 Updates on current research findings in inequality research. Gerald R. Ford School & The National Poverty Center.

University of South Carolina

Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics (EPID) and Department of Health Promotion, Education, and Behavior (HPEB)

- 2010 Built Environment and Physical Activity. Masters Seminar (EPID 745).
- 2010 School Grounds as Community Parks. Social and Physical Environmental Interventions (HPEB 824).
- 2009 Evaluation. Application of Epidemiology in Public Health (EPID 758).
- 2008 Built Environment and Physical Activity. Seminar in Epidemiology (EPID 745).
- 2008 Evaluation. Public Health Competencies and Epidemiology (EPID 894).
- 2008 Environmental audits and direct observation. Social and Physical Environmental Interventions (HPEB 824).
- 2007 Physical Activity Epidemiology. Doctoral Seminar (EPID 845).

Case Western Reserve University

Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics (EPBI) and Department of Psychology (PSCL)

- 2005 Effect Modification and Bias. Epidemiology: Application of Theory and Methodology (EPBI 491).
- 2004 Neighborhood Effects on Health, including discussion of theoretical models, statistical issues and case examples. Health Disparities (EPBI 510).
- 2004 Hierarchical Linear Models. Graduate Seminar: Pediatric Psychology (PSCL 501).
- 2003 Ethical Issues and Study Design. Ethics, Law and Epidemiology (EPBI 508).
- 2003 Principles of Study Design. Gender, Ethnicity and Health (EPBI 488).
- 2003 Analysis of Case-Control Studies, Hierarchical Linear Models – Statistical Models and Applications. Advanced Topics in Epidemiology (EPBI 499).
- 2003 Hierarchical Linear Models: Application to Intervention Research. Pediatric Psychology Seminar (PSCL 501). Department of Behavioral Pediatrics.
